Originations of C. F. and D. J. Kuhn
442 Colburn, Detroit 2, Michigan

General Information

We do not issue a general gladiolus catalogue, and list only our own originations primarily for the benefit of cataloguers and growers interested in getting a start in the Kuhn varieties directly from the originators. We do not have the facilities for handling small retail orders except at a substantial loss, and we respectfully request that no order be submitted for less than $10.00.

Full remittance is requested with all retail orders, which will be shipped postpaid in the continental U.S. Orders shipped by express, all discount orders to cataloguers, and all wholesale orders will be shipped F.O.B. Detroit or New Baltimore, Michigan.

Stock offered subject to prior sale.

1948 IntroductionsAria (Nadia X Cardinal) I-242 Early

Deep pink with light cream throat and mid-ribs. A small-flowered variety that performs like a grand champion. 50" tall, 20 buds, 8 3" florets open, 6-7 in color. As a seedling it won Award of Merit in 1945 at Detroit, the Honorable Mention Award of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society in 1946 at Boston, best seedling in its section at Cleveland, and the American Home Achievement Award in 1947 at the Michigan State show in Ann Arbor. Strong straight grower. Good propagator.
